

Time Project 2025 “Human Connections”

CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

October 2025

Dear Sir or Madam,

We are excited to invite you to be part of the 30th Anniversary Of Time Project November 28th 2025 !

Time Day is set for November 28th 2025 starting at 00:00 GMT. During that day throughout all time zones, the youth of the world will connect through TIME PROJECT. TIME offers a wide variety of inquiry/ project based learning activities such as video conferencing, the online research game ‘Unite the Nations’, a Model United Nations Video Conference Simulation, Sharing of information in our Global Youth Forum. Since 1995 well over 1000 schools and youth groups from 80 countries have participated in the Time Project and for the past 30 years all on a single day – Time Day.

During Time Day participants from around the globe will learn about and share findings centered on the topics are GOOD HEALTH AND WELLBEING (what is the health state of your community, do you know what to do to be healthy and well , do you do it; mental health - has it improved after covid pandemic; what to do to improve health of people in your community). SUSTAINABLE CITIES AND COMMUNITIES (how sustainable are the places we live in. RESPONSIBLE CONSUMPTION (your awareness of the influence your consumption has on every aspect of life on Earth). RESPONSIBLE CONSUMPTION for HOC The team of teachers worldwide, who help organize Time Project, empower youth to stand-up for their rights in part through talking to youth through Video Conferencing. “This is our Time” was originally initiated for the UNESCO Associated Schools Project and was one of their first ASPnet flagship projects in 1995. Today, Time Project is currently organized by Time Project Headquarters in Canada in cooperation with Time Ambassadors – expert teachers who have been involved with Time Project for years. Our mission is to empower youth to understand and act on the world’s greatest challenges. Travel the world without packing your suitcase or the need for a passport! Grab the opportunity to learn from and about other young people in an innovative project based learning environment!

Get involved! Be a TIME World Traveler.

We want you to join us for a DAY IN TIME November 28th 2025.

We aim for at least two participating schools from every time zone on earth. If your school, UNESCO Club or youth and social justice oriented organization would like to participate - it is free! Feel free to contact us by e-mail. To register fill out our on line registration form <https://forms.gle/Jc3xavqKiMuZ64Bn8>

Once you register we will send you lesson plans and support materials. There is no time like the present to join TIME PROJECT.

Contact Time Project headquarters at TimeProjectHQ@gmail.com and our website at <http://www.timeproject.org> for more information. You will receive all the necessary information regarding the different parts of the project as soon as we have received your email declaring an interest in the project. Remember this project is perfect for ON LINE learning and distance learning. No matter what format your school district is doing this fall, TIME PROJECT is the project that is perfectly suited for these times as we provide you with everything you need.

Yours in Time,

Respectfully,

Time Project Team
